Re: Bankruptcy forms

Dear Madam judge:

As you are aware, the most important notice that a debtor or a creditor receives from the bankruptcy court is the Notice of Commencement of Bankruptcy Case. But yet, the current form, which a copy of it is enclosed herein, is so confusing and disorganized that is the cause of many misconducts and errors on the part of all parties involved.

I have attached a proposed Notice of Bankruptcy Case and I would like you to consider it in replacing the current Notice. I believe that it is better organized than the present form. My proposed form shows all the essential and necessary information in a simple format so it can be understood by debtors and creditors alike who might only get to see this form once in their life time, and who are not familiar with the bankruptcy procedures.

Thank you in advance for your response.

Yours truly,

Ali Elahinejad
