 Comments:

Sir,
 It has been a long standing infringement upon the human equation that is supposed to be "...of the people, by the people, and for the people..." on all trial levels, as the majority of the courts govern themselves after the federal rules, etc. where citizens have no access to a strong and fundamental tool in their right to redress, and due process, etc. whereby they cannot support parts of their case by citing opinions from your peers because they were not published in some journal or weekly, or federal register whatever. It would be to everyones' advantage to support the access to un-published opinions as they are still rulings, opinions, analysis that where used to render an judgement.
